TAA Philosophy

The Board and Faculty of Tulsa Adventist Academy (TAA) believe that God created man in His own image, with the power to think and make personal choices subject to moral and physical laws.

We believe that our teachers are servants of God and the students are children of God. Using the Holy Scriptures as a basis, God has communicated His nature, purpose, and plans through divine revelation to man. We accept the gift of prophecy as represented in the life and ministry of Ellen G. White through the form of her writings.

TAA exists to glorify God by using his inerrant Word to future discipleship in Christ, serving primarily the youth of our congregations, equipping them for a lifetime of service to their Savior, their homes, churches, vocation and communities. TAA offers admission to Adventist families and to other families who are in harmony with the policies and principles of our school.

TAA offers the opportunity for students to receive a well-balanced physical, mental, spiritual, and social education in harmony with the Seventh-day Adventist denominational standards and ideals.

The leadership at TAA firmly believes that true education is the redemption of souls, and that man's greatest happiness comes through a personal relationship with Jesus and service to God, the greater community, and to fellow man.

The cooperation of the parents is essential to the realization of the school's objectives. The teachers' work serves as a supplemental extension to that of the home but is not to take its place. In all that concerns the well-being of the child, it should be the effort of parents and teachers to work together to achieve the following objectives.

TAA Objectives

- Spirit - To develop faith, trust, love, and confidence in the power of the Gospel and to develop an earnest desire for the joys found in knowing Jesus as a personal friend.
- Intellect - To arouse and stimulate the development of an intellectual curiosity that will develop into a practical and comprehensive knowledge base.
- Character - To develop a noble Christian character so that ideals of right, self-discipline, honesty, reverence, purity, integrity, and moral stamina become dynamic habits of conduct.
- Health - To develop awareness that the body is the temple of God, and to impart the knowledge of what produces a healthy mind and body.
- Thought - To develop the ability to think independently and constructively.

- Church - To encourage a sense of loyalty and responsibility in the performance of church activities.
- Society - To learn about and gain a respect for our world's social and cultural diversity thereby shaping a character like that of the Savior, which implies proper respect for men and women.
- Community - To develop a sense of personal responsibility for the welfare of the home, the community, and the nation.

TAA Mission Statement

TAA teachers and staff daily strive to practice our mission of preparing students for heaven and earth.

General Information

Who May Attend

The school is open to students as long as they maintain conduct in harmony with the Seventh-day Adventist standards of the school.

TAA offers grades pre-kindergarten through twelve. To enroll in pre-kindergarten students must be four years of age on or before September 1. If accepted the student will be enrolled on a probationary status. Kindergarten students must be five years old by September 1 to be enrolled at TAA. Students must have reached the age of six years old by September 1 of the current school year in order to be admitted to the first grade.

Non-Discriminatory

Tulsa Adventist Academy does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin or disability in its admission and administration of its educational and admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, extracurricular programs and other school-administered programs.

TAA does not discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation but does discriminate on the basis of sexual misconduct. Students are prohibited from activities including, but not limited to, non-marital sexual misconduct, homosexual conduct, or the encouragement or advocacy of any form of sexual behavior. This includes sexual intercourse, public displays of affection, intimate contact, homosexuality or behavior that exhibits a same sex relationship, pornography, and actions (for example, spending the night with someone of the opposite sex) that may lead to situations of temptation, regret and immoral conduct and would undermine the Christian identity or faith mission of TAA and the Seventh-day Adventist church.

Any person alleging discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, age or disability has a right to file a complaint within 180 days of the alleged discriminatory action. All complaints, written or verbal, shall be reported to the Principal or board chair.

New Student Application

An inquiry for an application for admission may be obtained through the school website at tulsaacademy.org. All students must complete an application and be approved before starting classes. Acceptance to TAA and grade classification is subject to possible placement testing and receipt of an official transcript of credits and proper recommendations for all new students.

Students transferring from another school will be required to present a certificate or report card confirming placement, be willing to take an entrance test, provide a third-party letter of recommendation, participate in an entrance interview, provide medical records, and have any account at the previous school paid in full or arrangements made in order to transfer. New students will need a copy of their birth certificate.

All students must have a current immunization record or exemption form on file for the following immunizations before they are allowed to attend.

- DTaP (Diphtheria/Tetanus/Pertussis)

Bible

All students in grades five to 12 are required to have a Bible that includes both Old and New Testaments. Each student is required to take a course in Bible for each year in attendance.

Non-Published Regulations

Any regulations voted by the faculty or board, when publicly announced, will have the same force as those appearing in the handbook.

Parental Responsibility

The success of the school depends in a large measure upon the fullest cooperation between parents and the school. The following suggestions for parental involvement will contribute to a more effective school program:

- Pray for your child/children and TAA daily.
- Attend parent meetings.
- Bring your student to school on time. Students are marked tardy after 8:00 AM.
- Pick up student promptly after school between 3:00 PM and 3:29 PM. Aftercare fees start at 3:30 PM. (See after-school policy.)
- Be consistently aware of your student's compliance of the school handbook.
- Check assignments nightly or regularly to evaluate your child's progress.
- Support your child's teacher in promoting the school program. Your involvement is vital to your child's success.
- Demonstrate a positive, upbeat school spirit to your students and those around you.

Grievance Procedure

If a misunderstanding and/or problem arises, the parent and/or guardian should follow this grievance procedure:

1. First, discuss the problem with the teacher. If this procedure fails to resolve the problem, see 2.
2. Contact the principal, withholding judgment until a complete investigation is made. See Matthew 18:15-17. If this still fails to solve the problem, see 3.
3. Finally, contact the School Board Chairperson, who will call a special meeting with the principal, the teacher, and the parent/guardian to seek a solution to the problem.

Any constituent of the school, parent, or student may address the School Board by obtaining prior permission from the School Board Chairperson and placing the concern on the agenda. However, if it is a complaint against a teacher or the principal, the above procedures must be followed first and written notice given to both teacher and principal at time of request.

Special Education

TAA seeks to provide a quality education for each of its students. TAA may not have the resources available to accommodate or meet the needs of every prospective student. Therefore, we advise parents of prospective children with special educational needs or physical disabilities to discuss their child's requirements with the school in detail when they apply.

Student Pledge

It is distinctly understood that every student who presents themselves for admission to the school also pledges to observe willingly all its regulations and uphold the Christian principles upon which the school is operated. It is also a part of the student's contract that he/she will, to the best of their ability, perform all duties assigned to him/her in connection with the school.

Administration of the School

The TAA School Board operates Tulsa Adventist Academy, and it shall have authority in respect to all matters concerning the school and program. TAA supports and upholds the beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. The educational officers of the Seventh-day Adventist church in the Southwestern Union and the Oklahoma Conference are relied upon for advice and counsel.

Disciplinary problems will be first handled in the classroom by the teacher and, if necessary, will be passed on to the principal. The principal will administer any needed action and, at his/her discretion, may take the problem to the school board. A majority action by the School Board is considered final.

No individual member of the School Board has the privilege of making decisions affecting school policies without the vote of the entire School Board. The purpose of the School Board is epitomized by the following quotation:

“The character of the work done in our church schools should be of the highest order. Jesus Christ, the Restorer, is the only remedy for a wrong education.”

-Ellen G. White, Counsels to Parents and Teachers, p. 174.

Staff Qualifications

The Board carefully considers staff qualification and supervision in regard to professional standing and moral integrity. TAA is currently operating a fully accredited school staffed by certified teachers for grades pre-K through 12.

“No minor child shall be admitted to any public, private, or parochial school operating in this state unless and until certification is presented to the appropriate school authorities from a licensed physician, or authorized representative of the State Department of Health, that such child has received or is in the process of receiving, immunizations against Diphtheria, Pertussis, Tetanus, Haemophilus Influenzae Type B (HIB), Measles (Rubeola), Rubella, Poliomyelitis, Varicella, Hepatitis A or is likely to be immune as a result of disease.”

Academics

Transcripts

Transcripts will be released by the Southwestern Union Office of Education (grades nine and 10), or Ozark Adventist Academy (grades 11 and 12) when written authorization is received from the requesting school. One complete transcript of grades will be issued free for any student of TAA through grade 10. Grades 11 and 12 will need to request their transcript directly from Ozark Adventist Academy at ozarkacademy.org (scroll down to Quick Links and choose Transcript Request Form). No diploma, transcript, or report card will be issued to any student until the account has been paid in full.

Incomplete Grades

An Incomplete must be made up within the current grading period or the student will be issued a failing grade.

Failures

If a student receives an I and/or F at the end of a semester in two or more subjects, his/her case may be reviewed by the Academic Standards Committee. Also, failure in a subject for first semester may result in non-continuance of that class (grades 9-12).

Honor Roll

Elementary (Grades 3-4)

In order to be placed on Honor Roll, elementary students must be recommended by the staff to meet criteria in all three areas: academics, citizenship, and leadership.

Middle School and High School (Grades 5-12)

In order to be placed on the Honor Roll, a student must maintain a 3.5 grade point average, with no Cs, Ds, or Fs in all subjects, be recommended by the staff, and have no citizenship problems.

Principal's Honor Roll (Grades 5 through 12)

If a student achieves all As in all subjects, with no detentions, and has no citizenship problems, then that student will be recommended to the principal for consideration for the Principal's Honor Roll. This is a high honor that will be recognized.

National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) and National Honor Society (NHS)

Students in grades 5–12 who meet the requirements for membership outlined by their school's chapter are eligible to be invited for membership. Each chapter is required to publish its qualifications for membership, which is based on the four pillars of NHS:

- Scholarship: Per national guidelines, at a minimum, students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, or equivalent standard of excellence. (Each school chapter is allowed to require a higher cumulative GPA.)
- Service: This involves voluntary contributions made by a student to the school or community, done without compensation.
- Leadership: Student leaders are those who are resourceful, good problem solvers, and idea contributors. Leadership experiences can be drawn from school or community activities while working with or for others.
- Character: The student of good character is cooperative; demonstrates high standards of honesty and reliability; shows courtesy, concern, and respect for others; and generally maintains a clean disciplinary record.

Students who meet the scholarship requirement will have an opportunity to complete a form detailing their accomplishments in and commitment to service, leadership, and character.

Report Cards and Grading System

Grades will be issued every quarter. The school calendar gives the dates for the end of each grading period. Grades will either be given to the parent at a Parent-Teacher Conference, or they will be sent in regular mail. When a student is performing below acceptable levels of work (D or F), the teacher may issue a mid-term report to the student or parent as a warning of a potential failing grade.

The following chart is the simplified basis of the school's grading system.

Description	Letter Grade	Percentage	Points
Superior Work	A	90 - 100	4
Above Average Work	B	80 - 89	3
Average Acceptable Work	C	70 - 79	2
Below Average Work	D	60 - 69	1
Failing Work	F	0 - 59	0

NOTE: Pluses and Minuses are given within each letter grade at the top and bottom two percentage points within each category. (Example: 88% and above is a B+; 81% and below is a B-.

Class Offices (Grades 5-12)

All students who wish to hold a class office must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 and have no disciplinary problems.

Transfer Units (Grades 9 and 12)

A student may take credit transfer and correspondence work only after securing permission in advance from the administration. No student will be permitted to take classes by correspondence during the school year if that class is offered in the regular class curriculum, except by special permission of the administration. If a student wishes to take any correspondence courses while enrolled at TAA, please discuss the appropriateness of such a course with school administration.

Music Program

Music is part of the curriculum provided at TAA in accordance with state and Conference Guidelines. As an Adventist Christian school, we believe that “From the lips of children and infants, You, Lord, have called forth Your praise.” (Matthew 21:16) It is our goal to educate our young people not only to develop skills and talents, but, most importantly, to help our students learn to praise God despite the counterfeits the devil has set forth.

For grades nine through 12, students will be required to take a minimum of one quarter credit of music instruction per year. Choir is the only music program offered as a credit at TAA; however private instrument lessons may be available. It will be the responsibility of the student to secure any instruments needed to participate in private music lessons. In addition, specialty music groups will be offered based on instructor availability and preference. Under special circumstances and with discussion with the principal, students may be able to receive music credit through private music instruction.

Since Music is a participation class, it will be expected that students practice as well as perform as part of their involvement in the program. Performances include, but are not limited to, the Christmas and Spring programs and church services scheduled throughout the year. Students are expected to attend all performances scheduled for their ensemble for the year.

Music Lessons

When there is a music teacher available during the school day to give lessons on the school campus, permission may be granted by consultation with the principal and homeroom teacher to take a music lesson during class time. If this is done, contractual agreements between the music teacher and student are not handled by TAA. The student has the responsibility to make up any work lost.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is recorded both in the classroom and the school office daily. It is the responsibility of the parent and student to stop at the office and check students in after 8:00 AM. This record is a legal document. Attendance remains part of the permanent record. Oklahoma State law states in Section 229:

“It shall be unlawful for a parent, guardian, or other person having custody of child who is over the age of 5 years, and under the age of 18 years, to neglect or refuse to cause or compel such child to attend and comply with the rules of some public, private or other school, unless other means of education are provided for the full term the school districts are in session or the child is excused as provided in this section. One-half day of kindergarten shall be required of all children 5 years of age or older unless the child is excused from kindergarten attendance as provided in this section. A child who is 5 years of age shall be excused from kindergarten attendance until the next school year after the child is 6 years of age if a parent, guardian, or other person having custody of the child notifies the superintendent of the district where the child is a resident by certified mail prior to enrollment in kindergarten, or at any time during the first school year that the child is required to attend kindergarten pursuant to this section, of election to withhold the child from kindergarten until the next school year after the child is 6 years of age.”

- All students entering first grade must be six years of age on or before September 1 of the current school year.
- All students entering kindergarten must be five years of age on or before September 1 of the current school year.
- All students entering pre-kindergarten must be four years of age on or before September 1 of the current school year.

Excusing Absences and Tardies

School attendance is a joint responsibility of the home and the school. Parents must notify the school office of any immediate or anticipated absence of their child. In cases where arrangements have not been made, the office will make an effort to contact the parents and confirm the location and situation of each student. This will be done within the first hour of the school day.

Because of the legal record which is kept by the office of all absences and tardies, TAA requires that if a parent wishes to have the absence or tardy EXCUSED, the parent will put that reason in writing and either email it to taaoffice@tulsaacademy.org or bring it to the office within three school days from the return of the student. If a student is absent for three or more days, a doctor’s note is required.

Acceptable reasons for absences include the following:

- Illness of the Student - Parent and/or Doctor’s Note
- Medical Appointment - Doctor’s offices usually have an excuse form
- Quarantine - Parent and/or Doctor’s Note
- Bereavement (immediate family) - Parent or Pastor’s Note

There are three categories of absences:

- Excused absences that fit the criteria above are notated in the record book as such but are treated as though the student was present, allowing them to make up work for credit. They would qualify for any attendance awards.

- Pre-arranged and approved absences that are not school sponsored are unexcused and do not qualify for any attendance awards but do allow students to make up work for credit.
- Unexcused absences do not qualify a student for any attendance awards. If no written explanation is provided within three days, the absence will be labeled unexcused. Work for credit cannot be made up.

School work that is missed because of excused or arranged absence shall be made up within the number of days of absence after the return of the student to the classroom. (If a student has been absent for three days, then three school days are allowed to make up the missing work.) When unexcused absences occur, make up work may be required, but credit will not be given.

If for any reason a student misses more than eight days in any one quarter (three tardies equal one absence), then that student's name will be taken to the TAA staff for review and appropriate action. The staff will consider the academic standing of the student and/or may wish to counsel with the parents. Should this become a continuing problem, the student's name will be recommended to the School Board for appropriate action. Such action may include any or all of the following:

- Reporting to the authorities as outlined by Oklahoma State law.
- Expelling the student from school and giving parents the opportunity to re-enroll student. Re-registration fees are $50.
- Expelling the student from school with no invitation to re-register.
- Special consideration may be granted for extenuating circumstances.
- Failure of classes missed.
- Other action as may be deemed appropriate by the Board.

In cases of a planned absence, please inform the teacher in advance so that class assignments may be given prior to missing school. If absence is planned, the student will receive material from the teacher at the timing that is available for the teacher.

Discipline Policy

Practice and experience finds that where there is a school-wide discipline program, it is not used in the same way by the different teachers through the differing age groups of the school. Therefore, each teacher may work with a different program of discipline than that of a teacher in another grade. Teachers will work with students, parents, and administration as needed when a child demonstrates the need for discipline.

For more serious offenses such as insubordination, fighting, intimidation or demeaning other students, sexual harassment, or possession of weapons (including knives), bullying (physical, verbal, social, cyber) any other serious problems, then the student will immediately go to the principal.

Possession of any firearm or drugs will lead a student immediately to the principal, and by law, the school shall report such possession to the proper authorities. Bullying that involves a firearm or other weapon will, by law, be reported to the proper authorities.

School Environment

By applying to TAA, a Seventh-day Adventist school, you are committing to show yourself supportive of the established purpose of Adventist education, and committing to live in harmony with the standards, expectations, and goals of this school.

To create a healthy classroom and school atmosphere TAA reserves the right to limit, search or restrict any method or mode of communication (such as computers, media devices, technology usage, written notes, code, body gestures, or use of another language etc.) that has become a means of communicating hurtful or offensive messages, bullying, escaping supervision, being discourteous, or carrying out any other inappropriate or irresponsible behavior. In addition, it is understood that for the goal of academic excellence, unity and cohesion, English is the common language used on campus during school hours.

Standards of Conduct

Some practices do not fall in harmony with the Christian standards of Seventh-day Adventist schools. TAA will not knowingly tolerate a student involved in such practices. Students who participate in any such activities are stating a removal of their commitment to Adventist education and their current and future enrollment will be evaluated or terminated.

The student will refrain from:

- Expressing atheistic ideas or undermining the religious ideals of faith upheld by the school.
- Using profane or indecent language, indulging in lewd conduct or suggestions, possessing or displaying obscene literature, pictures, or articles, or clear acts of racism.
- Using tobacco, alcohol, drugs, or narcotics in any form, having the same in one's possession, or furnishing them to others.
- Possessing knives, firecrackers, squirt guns, fire arms, cigarette lighters, matches, or explosives of any kind.
- Gambling, betting, or possession of gambling devices.
- Dishonesty, including theft, willful deception, cheating in examinations, plagiarism or any phase of school business.

- Improper sexual conduct: TAA has adopted a hands-off policy. Improper displays of affection may include touching, hugging, holding hands, and kissing are unacceptable behavior for TAA students.
- Defiance or insubordination, disrespect or disobedience by any student toward any teacher or staff member.
- Shoving, pushing, fighting, or being involved in any physical or verbal altercation.
- Destruction or vandalism of any school or personal property.

Bullying

TAA has a zero tolerance to bullying. We have implemented this zero tolerance policy to protect students, faculty, and staff, and to support Oklahoma state law and the Oklahoma Seventh-day Adventist Conference.

Attitude

Whenever, in the judgment of the faculty, the student's attendance at TAA is no longer profitable to him- or herself, or his or her influence is detrimental to others, or when previous attempts to help the student have not brought about the desired results, parents will be requested to withdraw the student from school. The school will endeavor to keep in close touch with the home regarding the student's progress. Parents will be consulted in dealing with serious problems.

Wellness Policy

TAA is committed to providing a school environment that enhances learning and development of lifelong wellness practices. All students should possess the knowledge and skills necessary to make nutritious food choices and enjoyable physical activity choices for a lifetime. In addition, all staff are encouraged to model healthful eating and physical activity as a valuable part of daily life. To meet these commitments, TAA has adopted a wellness policy with commitments to nutrition, physical activity, comprehensive health education, marketing and implementation. The intent of this policy is to effectively utilize school and community resources and to equitably serve the needs and interests of all students and staff, taking into consideration differences in culture.

School Procedures

Students will not be permitted to leave school grounds after their arrival at school or during school hours except for organized class functions or where previous arrangements have been made with the principal. If a student needs to leave early, the parent must stop by the office to sign the student out.

Students with automobiles, motorcycles, or bicycles must use them only for transportation to and from school. No students will be allowed in cars during school hours or recess. School insurance demands that no other students be allowed to ride in a student's vehicle unless previous written permission from both students' parents have been granted. Cars must be locked and parked in the designated area.

Eating will be permitted only at the designated times and in designated places. No snacks or beverages are allowed in the classroom, unless for a special event and with approval of the teacher. Water is acceptable. Gum is not to be chewed in the school or on the school premises at any time.

Electronic gaming devices are not permitted on campus. Cell phones may be brought to school if powered down and given to the teacher by 8:00 A.M. They may be picked up after 3:00 PM. If you need to reach your student during school hours please call the office and we will be happy to pass a message along to the student or bring them to the office for the call.

Students should get permission from the principal one day in advance before bringing visitors to school. Visitors must be dressed in business casual clothing and recognize all standards of TAA.

The school telephone is not to be used by students without permission from a staff member. Parents needing to get in touch with their child during school hours may call the office and leave a message. Classes will not be interrupted except for an emergency.

Seventh-day Adventists support a vegetarian lifestyle. Therefore, we encourage lunches being brought to school be vegetarian as much as possible. Students should not bring or drink caffeinated beverages on school grounds as TAA supports healthful living recommendations.

Other Campus Policies

Student Valuables

TAA assumes no responsibility for the private possessions of students. The upper grades are assigned a locker to keep their possessions safe. If a student desires some protection for something, they must talk with the office staff or the principal. Most at-risk things would be musical instruments or electronics.

Chapel

Chapel or assembly programs are held every Wednesday. These programs help promote continuity of information between the various classes of the school. Chapel attendance is required of each student and is open to parent and homeschool attendance as well.

In order to maintain a quiet, reverent atmosphere in the chapel, students are requested to enter the chapel quietly, take his/her seat, and refrain from conversation.

Religious Activities

TAA offers a variety of opportunities for student participation in organized activities. These organizations offer spiritual leadership, Christian friendship, and opportunities for students to be busy in many worthwhile ways.

TAA's religious exercises aim to challenge the school family to live life at its best. Active student participation is expected in all religious activities. This participation allows for development of the student's abilities. Religious activities are an important factor in the development of a rich Christian experience, and are most valuable in training for future leadership.

Snow Days

In the case of inclement weather watch for a text message from Remind, watch our TAA Parents Page on Facebook and/or check your email. These announcements will be given as early and as timely as reasonably possible.
